

PARTNERS IN EDUCATION: CHANGING EDUCATION TOGETHER

DETAILS

Please join us for a conversation about our public education system and how we can make it stronger together. This will be an opportunity for educators, community workers, and parents to talk about issues that we currently face in education, including the effects of Bill 115.

Come out and join the conversation!

This forum is open to parents, education workers, community workers, and anyone interested in public education at the elementary level.
